Alfonso's Attempted Assassination.

By Cable to the News.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—A Madrid special says Juan Moncase, who attempted to shoot King Alfonso yesterday, was arraigned to-day. When asked what was his object in leaving his home on the Mediterranean and coming to the capitol, he replied defiantly: "I came here to kill the King." Moncase was then returned to his cell. He has associated with the internationalists since arriving on Saturday last. The Council of Ministers had a protracted session to-day. It is reported the King has requested that Moncase be not executed, but imprisoned for a term of years.

Te Deums were celebrated to-day in the Cathedral and churches of the city. Congratulatory telegrams were received from all parts of the world.

That Terrible Failure.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—It is believed that the call for $2500 per share, of which the liquidators of the city of Glasgow Bank gave notice yesterday, will exhaust the means of the smaller shareholders and throw the burden of assessment upon a few wealthy ones. This assessment will be further increased by the fact that the bank itself had a large amount of its own shares,—such an amount that about four and a half millions of the present call would have been assessed thereon, and which must consequently be made good by the shareholders. The first installment of the present call is made payable on the 22nd of December, and the second on the 24th of February next. It seems inevitable that it will be followed by future and larger calls on those not bankrupted by the present one.

Falls Back on his Dignity.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 26.—Secretary Sherman, in reply to a question, said he had nothing to say concerning James E. Anderson's retraction of his story about the alleged Sherman letter, further than that he had always been satisfied that the truth of history would, in the end, fully vindicate him from all the charges and aspersions in that connection, and that he would prefer to assist rather than delay or obstruct a thorough examination into all the facts.

Amnesty to Carolina Distillers.

By Telegraph to the News.

C., Oct, 26.—The AttorneyGeneral, in accordance with the recommendations of the Acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue, has granted the petition of some four hundred persons in North Carolina, indicted for violation of Revenue laws. They will be allowed to plead guilty to charges against them but their sentence be suspended during good behavior. They promise to abstain from further violations of law themselves and use their influence to prevent others from doing so.

At the conclusion of the speaking the large audience adjourned to the elegant halls of the two societies, where some time was spent in delightful discourse. G.

The nobility of Russia seem to be astride a political volcano. Nihilism is so prevalent in that empire that 300 of this sect are now imprisoned in the single city of Odessa. The Russian army is said to be full of this heresy. An outbreak, and a repetition of the scenes of the French revolution, would not be surprising.

A slow decline of the leg drama is noted by dramatic critics, and is generally attributed to an improved public taste. In one respect this is true. The public taste has been educated up to so high a point that infirm limbs fail to draw, and a really superior article is seldom available for stage purposes.

Bloody Vendettas.

The Corsican vendetta is the theme of an interesting article in the Paris Temps. There are two sorts of vendetta—the direct (as the son avenging his father or the brother his brother or sister), and the indirect or transversal, where the feud is kept up by distant relatives. So long as there remains one member of the two contending families the field is open to reprisal. One writer estimates that in thirty years 80,000 men were sacrificed to this barbarous custom; another places the murders between 1359 and 1715 at 300,000.

A Husband's Vengeance.

The latest sensation comes from Kentucky. A man named Chaffin had taken one Newton's wife, with the intention of eloping. Newton seized a double-barreled shotgun, pursued them and literally shot Chaffin's head into fragments. He then took his wife behind him and returned in the direction of home. Newton has not been seen since. A posse went in hot pursuit of him. Chaffin was left prostrate with his brains strewn over the ground.

HIS CRIME PURSUES HIM.

A Murderer on Trial--A Woman Poisoner---A Burglar to be Hanged.

Correspondence of the News.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Oct 24.

The Court House was crowded this morning with a large number of the citizens of this county, to hear the trial of Hansil Godwin for the murder of Polly Blackmore. Some two or three years ago the woman Blackmore died from the effects of poison, and on her death bed declared most positively that Godwin had given her the poison in a drink of liquor. After her death the defendant disappeared and no one knew of his whereabouts. At the coroner's inquest held over the body of the woman a great deal of testimony was given in, all of which bore in the same direction, and pointed out Godwin as the man who committed the deed. The jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the facts above set forth. An order for Godwin's arrest was made, but he could not be found, and in a short while he was outlawed by judicial proclamation.

If the prisoner is convicted, which is by no means improbable, it will be from evidence which is purely circumstantial. He had been in jail for a few months only, after the woman's death, when he mysteriously disappeared, but was arrested in South Carolina and there held until he was brought to this county. The case is of exceeding interest, from the fact that Godwin is related to some of the best people in this section, and also from the fact that he has been in time a man of some prominence in his township. During the long term of sheriff McNeill, he was for many years one of the Sheriff's most trusty deputies, and I understand that one period of Godwin's life was occupied by him in preaching the doctrine of the Free Will Baptists.

The prisoner was arraigned this morning; the bill of indictment was read, after which the Solicitor asked the usual question, "Guilty or not guilty?" "How will you be tried?" was the next question. "I will be tried before God and my country." Here the old man broke completely down, sobbing bitterly. Every one in the Court seemed to be deeply affected by his weeping. His counsel are able, being Messrs. Thos. H. Sutton, McRae & Broadfoot, and Guthrie & Crow.

The case of State vs. Robt. Lee, for burglary, moved from Bladen to this county, was tried this week. The jury, after an absence of one hour, returned with a verdict of guilty. He will certainly hang, as no effort will be made to obtain a new trial, which could not be obtained any way, judging from the prevailing sentiment. J. C. T.

He Was Converted.

Georgia Paper.

"At a camp-meeting, when penitents were called up to be prayed for, an old reprobate, 'half-seas over,' went to the altar. He was not satisfied with that, but requested the minister afterward to put up a special prayer in his behalf. He did so, and begged the Almighty to have mercy on Mr. White, as he well knew what a torn-down sinner he was; that he would get drunk and swear, and in fact break all the commandments, but as he was penitent, to forgive him. The old sinner did not like to be so exposed in public, and on returning to his seat met with a young lawyer, who observed to him that the preacher had ruined his character, and that he ought to sue him for defamation of character, and that he would undertake the case for half of what he recovered. It was carried to court, and the preacher was fined $100.

Sham Jewelry and Dresses.

It is astonishing how many rich people condescend to wear imitations of costly things; and this piece of bad taste is not by any means confined to nouveaux riches, who might be expected to know no better. Cotton velvet with a silk face does duty for the rich Lyons velvet which once alone was worn by gentlewomen; imitation lace, mock jewelry and sham furs are worn unblushingly. There is no greater snobbery than that shown in the pretension of modern dress, and no falseness more easily seen through than that of sham finery. A true gentlewoman will only wear what is genuine and good of its kind, no matter how modest and unpretending that kind may be.

A Strong Plea to Voters.

Geo. H. Gregory, Esq., Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of the Fifth District, has issued from Greensboro the following to the voters to support Gen. Scales against Tourgee. The call is the last one and will this week be sent to every voter in the district. It contains advice which it behooves good Democrats everywhere to follow. The claim is made that by united effort Tourgee can be beaten by 3000 majority:

"We beg leave to urge you, as an intelligent and influential citizen, to hearken to the call of patriotism and take up the task that duty is now about to cast on every man. Go to the polls on the Fifth day of November next and vote and work diligently. Our enemy is organizing everywhere, and by means of Federal patronage—the Revenue service—the Post Office machinery and U. S. Marshals, has the ability and tools to colonize voters at any point along the line of the Railroads. Be on the alert and don't let him defeat or hinder a fair, free and full expression of the popular will. Look to the following points:

1st. See that every Democrat is registered before the day of election.

2nd. Challenge every attempt illegally to register or vote.

3rd. Provide ways and means to get the sick, the poor, the aged and infirm to the polls.

4th. Be on the ground yourself from sun-rise to sun-set, keep cool and work hard.

God defend the right and give us speedy relief from the hard times, an honest administration of the government and a true, tried and trusted Representative.

Methodism in North Carolina.

Christian Advocate.

Our membership in the North Carolina Conference, adding the number having joined this year, may be put down in round numbers at 60,000. There are 25 counties in our State attached to the Holston and Virginia Conference. The number of Methodists in these counties is put down at 10,000. Protestant Methodists, we have been informed by one of the preachers, number 10,000. Colored Methodists—the fruits of the M. E. Church, South, before the war number 20,000. The O'Kelleyites, (called christians,) and those who have joined the M. E. Church, North, and another small sect called "The Methodists," known as the abolitionist Methodists before the war, are supposed to number 15,000. This gives a grand total of 115,000 Methodist communicants in the State.

The Prairie Fires.

The Western papers report large and devastating prairie fires in parts of Iowa and Nebraska. Besides the destruction of grain, farm houses and agricultural machinery, several lives are reported to have been lost among the smaller farmers in the endeavor to protect their stacks from the flames. Last week the prairie fires in Cedar county, Nebraska, are represented to have been the most destructive of any that the people of the county have ever experienced. The amount of damage done in the county is said to be immense, many poor people being left wholly destitute. Prairie fires were also reported around Stanton, Nebraska, the town itself barely escaping by the energy of the people plowing fire lines around it. The damage done to the prairie farmers was very great, both in wheat burned up and in the destruction of farming implements and machinery.

The Biter Bitten.

A young man sat up half an hour one night after his chum had gone to bed, sewing the legs of the innocent sleeper's trowsers together. He sewed them strong, and laughed long and silently after he went to bed, as he pictured the scene in the morning. When the morning dawned, he arose with a glow of anticipation in his face, and as it slowly faded away he sat down upon the side of the bed, and dejectedly cut open the bottom of his own carefully sewed trowsers legs, and when his unsuspecting chum asked him what he was doing, he sighed and said, sadly, "Oh nothing." And he wearily thought how full of meanness was this base, deceiving old world.

Edison's Electric Light.

Chicago Tribune.

The point that Edison makes is, that the greater part of the coal-gas in combustion is converted into invisible heat and consequently is lost for purposes of illumination. He also claims that very little of the material he uses for the production of electric light is lost in invisible heat. He claims to have discovered how to effect an enormous saving in the generation of electric light. The immense cost of pipes to convey gas is also saved by the Edison invention. He has not yet made public a statement of the probable cost of producing electric light per candle-power, but those in his confidence report that he is confident it will be far less than the cost of gas as furnished to the public by the gas companies.

Elevated Railways.

Wilmington Star.

Notice has been given at a meeting of the Boston board of aldermen of an intention to petition the legislature for a charter for a corporation to build and equip an elevated railway in that city. Rapid transit saves time, and if it were certain that intellectual and physical well-being suffered, our national hurry would lead us to adopt all such schemes of utilizing every minute possible. We may expect to have elevated railways in all our large cities.

An Outlaw for Sale.

Three of the former confederates of Redmond, the famous South Carolina moonshiner, made a proposition to the United States officials that for the sum of $1,500 they would undertake to capture and deliver Redmond up to the law. The proposition was communicated to the authorities, and the Attorney General at Washington has decided that there is no fund which could be made legally available for such purpose.

U. S. Court at Elizabeth City.

Federal Court is in session here this week, Judge Brooks presiding. The docket is light and the attendance is small. There are a few cases of violations of U. S. Revenue and Marine laws. Hon. J. W. Albertson, Solicitor, and J. B. Hill, Marshal, are both in attendance.

PRESBYTERIAN STATE SYNOD.

Fourth Day--Interesting Exercises.

Correspondence of the News,

GOLDSBORO, N. C., Oct. 26.

The Synod met at 3 p. m. on yesterday. The Judiciary Committee reported that no business had been reported to them and they were discharged. The next order was "Davidson College." A full statement of the flourishing condition of the college was made, and very able speeches on the subject were submitted by Rev. Jno. Douglas, Rev. E. H. Harding, and Dr. Jos. R. Wilson. Rev. Dr. Phillips of the University returned thanks for the complimentary mention made of the University of North Carolina, and also expressed his interest in Davidson College. These speeches, involving as they did, the great interest of education, were deeply interesting and instructive.

The Synod then adjourned until after the night services, the special order then being to hear the Rev. Dr. Jas. K. Hazen, the Agent of the General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church. At 7:30 o'clock a very large congregation assembled to hear a sermon by Rev. Dr. Phillips. His text was John 3d ch. and 3d v., and was one of the best of his life—powerful in argument, and tender and persuasive in its appeals. The Synod organized immediately after this sermon and heard a deeply interesting statement from Dr. Hazen.

SATURDAY—FOURTH DAY.

Synod met at 9 a. m., and was opened with devotional exercises by Rev. Martin McQueen.

The committee appointed to prepare an address to the churches on the state of religion, made a report, which was adopted, and ordered to be printed with the proceedings, and for all ministers to read it from their pulpits to their congregation. This address reveals an interesting condition in the religious progress of the Synod, many churches have been graciously revived, and the general accessions have been large and gratifying. The religious activities of the church have been faithfully developed in the training of the young in families and Sabbath-Schools. The address was prepared and submitted by Rev. Dr. I. H. Smith. While short, it is full, pointed and able.

The committee appointed to prepare a minute concerning the training of colored ministers, expressed the views of Synod, and asked until next session of the Synod to make their full report.

At this point the order of the day was suspended, to hear Rev. Dr. Hazen on the Sabbath-School question, and especially the conduct of Sunday-School Institutes and normal classes for the training of teachers in Sunday-Schools. This exceedingly instructive and interesting address was listened to with great attention and profit.

Rev. B. F. Marable presented a paper on Evangelistic work in the Synod, which caused prolonged and interesting discussions by Rev. Mr. Rumple, Dr. Chas. Phillips and Rev. H G Heel and others. This report called out the comparative progress of Presbyterians. Important statistical statements were made, showing that the members of the Presbyterian church in North Carolina has within the last few years greatly increased in proportion to the population.

The Rev. Dr. J H Smith reported memorial minute on deaths of Rev. Jacob Doll and Rev. Dr. R H Chapman, one on the death of Rev. H H Banks, and Rev. H T Darnale, one on the death of Rev. W G Baird, and the Rev. M McQueen, one on the death of Rev. Archibald Baker. All these minutes were most appropriate and touching, but the one on the death of the beloved Jacob Doll, was peculiarly beautiful and tender and will be read with tearful interest by his many friends when published.

After the usual devotional exercises the Synod adjourned to 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Exciting Sport at Beaufort.

Correspondence of the News.

BEAUFORT, Oct. 25.

Saturday evening three of our boats went out drum fishing, and in 2 hours time were back at the wharf with 47, 45 and 32 drum fish, respectively. We would have taken many more but bait gave out. These fish weighed about 30 pounds each, (average weight) and it is no slight tug to get one of them into the boat after he is hooked. One of the boats got a shark alongside, which measured over 15 feet in length, but the hook was cut out of the monster's mouth, and he was left to grow still longer. Friday night a boat took 36 of these drum fish, and two boys fishing from Shackelford's Point Beach caught over 30 of them in a half hour's fishing. The blue fishing is also very fine in the inlet now, and some days we have rare sport. "Old Caesar" took about a dozen fine large sheepshead one day last week at the Fort wharf. Our up-country friends all come here too early in the season to enjoy the best sport, and now we are having the fun all to ourselves.

America's Relations to England.

No American can read the forebodings of business disaster to England without regret. The prosperity of that great nation is so interwoven, even if her people were not of the same kinship and language, that no right thinking man can hear of her prospective troubles and not feel disturbed thereby. She is our best customer for breadstuffs and provisions, as well as for most articles of manufactures, and what effects her disturbs us.

A GLOWING TRIBUTE.—One of the secretaries of a Church Missionary Society, a distinguished man, was about to preach to a colored congregation, when he was introduced by the regular minister of the church, a black man, in these words: "Now den, bruddren, I'se heah to info'm you dat Bruddah Blank is gwine to preach to you to-day. He is de Seccatary of de Missionary Society, a distinguished an' a eloquent man—in fac', my bruddun, he is a soundin' brass an' a tinklin' cymbal."

Cleverly Played.

A newly married couple played a neat game on their friends recently. The usual trip after the wedding was announced, and, as they left the home of the bride's parents, a pleasant tour was wished, and old shoes were thrown after the carriage, but the couple, instead of going to a depot, merely drove a few squares to a dwelling, which had been furnished for their reception, and immediately went to house-keeping.

Trapping Rabbits for Bounty

A farmer living near Boise City, Idaho, is doing a heavy business in rabbits. He traps about four hundred jack rabbits a day. Traps are placed along about three miles of brush fence. The rabbits leap the brush fence and alight on the board covering of the hole or trap, which board works on a pivot. The trap resets itself and very often catches a half-dozen rabbits at a time. The rabbits are fed to hogs. Seven men are employed on the rabbit farm. The ears of the game are saved, as there is a bounty of two cents per pair, enough to pay all expenses of setting the traps.

Cities Cannot Tax Their Bonds.

Brooklyn Eagle.

The U. S. Supreme Court has just decided that cities cannot tax their own bonds. In passing upon the question, the court condensed the law and equity of the whole subject into these few terse sentences: "The truth is, States and cities, when they borrow money and contract to pay it with interest, are not acting as sovereignties. They come down to the level of ordinary individuals. Their contracts have the same meaning as that of similar contracts between private persons. Hence, instead of their being in the undertaking of a state or city to pay, a reservation of a sovereign right to withhold payment, by tax or otherwise, the contract should be regarded as an assurance that such a right shall not be exercised. A promise to pay, with a reserved right to deny or change the effect of the promise, is an absurdity."

The One Thing Needful.

Mottle Register.

Not until he shall have invented a vest-pocket so ingeniously contrived as to conceal a cigar from the searching eyes of the fellow who never has any of his own and is always in pursuit of the mate to the one you have in your mouth, can Edison claim to have reached the highest point of his glory.

No More in Need.

The New Orleans Peabody Subsistence Association, which has cared for the destitute while the Howards supplied medicine, medical attendance, and nurses, now makes the official announcement that no further contributions are needed, accompanying this gratifying statement with a thankful recognition of the magnificent generosity of the people of the north.

Artesian wells grow rapidly in favor, and are being sunk in great numbers, proving everywhere a success. The cost of sinking them is small, compared to the benefit derived; the water, for drinking purposes, is superior to any surface or mine water, and the flow is constant, steady and sure.

The certainty and reliability of the monthly drawings of the Louisiana State Lottery Company have received during the raging of the epidemic a pretty severe test. Many persons were afraid that the drawings would be postponed, and others apprehensive that they could not get any response to their letters; but the management of this sterling institution has never scaled or postponed a drawing since its incorporation in 1868, and has established a reputation for integrity and regularity of management unprecedented in the history of similar enterprises. *

A Remarkable Result.

It makes no difference how many Physicians, or how much medicine you have tried, it is now an established fact that German Syrup is the only remedy which has given complete satisfaction in severe cases of Lung Diseases. It is true there are yet thousands of persons who are predisposed to Throat and Lung Affections, Consumption, Hemorrhages, Asthma, Severe Colds settled on the Breast, Pneumonia, Whooping Cough, &c., who have no personal knowledge of Coschee's German Syrup. To such we would say that 50,000 dozen were sold last year without one complaint. Consumptives try just one bottle. Regular size 75 cents. Sold by all Druggists in America.

Clara Liggon,

Living in the northern part of the city of Raleigh, died from the effects of burns received from the explosion of a kerosene lamp, while sitting by the bed side of her sick child.—Raleigh Daily News. *

One of the largest and best selected stocks of Groceries, Dry Goods, Ready-made Clothing, Boots and Shoes in the city will be found at W. E. Dupree's, Raleigh, N. C. Go and see him and you will be surprised to see how cheap he does sell goods. Don't forget the place for it is to your interest to give him a trial before buying elsewhere. *

Eternal Fitness.

Of all the men who by good nature and good fits have won themselves a far and wide reputation, that jolliest and best of Tailors, Chris. Weikel, is the leader. No higher compliment can be paid a well fitting suit than to say he made it. Those who would like to be Beau Brummels or D'Orsays, can be so by getting suits at Weikel's

Meal, Corn and Mullets.

Messrs. A. C. Sanders & Co. received on yesterday fresh mullets, nice white meal, and sound old corn, on consignment. Call on them to-day for bargains. They always sell on arrival if possible. Send your cotton to them if you want the best prices the market affords. *

Well! Well!

Something that is a surprise to every one. Why you can go to Brewster's and get a whole wagon load of stoves and hardware, for a few dollars, and his Cotton King Cook stove cannot be equaled in the State. Brewster is a thorough going hardware man, he has been raised to the business, and knows what and where to buy. He is a northern man, and is acquainted with all the ins and outs of the business; knows the manufacturers and all about their goods. Call and see him, he will treat you right, take my word for it, I have tried him. Yours, GIMLET.

The Smokers' Paradise.

The delights of this elysium have been sung by many of the devotees of the weed. But none are so competent to speak of its blisses as those who purchase their tobacco and cigars from the elegant little store of F. Gruendler, opposite the postoffice. *

A. J. GALLOWAY,
Chair'n Dist. Ex. Com.

Vote for Joe Davis.

Remember to vote at the primary election.

Tilden denies that he is to be married. Evidently he does not sigh for matrimonial bliss.

THE rumor that Mr. Dana has retired from the New York Sun is without foundation.

Those who complain most of the State Fair are generally those who contributed nothing whatever to its success.

BOTH the English and the German governments have sent commissioners to this country for the purpose of observing the workings of the American Internal Revenue system.

The colored people of Georgia seem to be keeping step with the progress of their State, and will hold an annual fair, the first ever held by that race in the South, at La Grange, Ga., next month.

THE prize for the best bale of cotton exhibited at Paris has been awarded to Memphis. The same bale received a grand testimonial, as being the best ever raised in the world. Memphis, in her hour of desolation, will take small comfort in the flattering tribute.

Our reports from the Congressional outlook in Orange are of a most encouraging nature. The white people are becoming more and more disgusted with Josiah Turner. His frequent exhibition of himself in bar rooms drinking with negroes and button-holing them is too much even for those who have heretofore been most disposed to overlook his many short comings.

THE wreck of a steamboat in Chesapeake Bay, during the storm of Tuesday night, was accompanied with very serious loss of life, and calls for the remark that the peril of navigating that great bay, not less in width than many of the inland "seas" with which the maps make us familiar, are altogether too serious for some of the craft that venture on its waters.

A Monument to Sion H. Rogers.

The magnificent post office building is an ornament to Raleigh and a convenience and a comfort to the public. Raleigh cannot forget that it is to the exertions and patriotism of that wholesouled, genial gentleman, her best loved son, the late Sion H. Rogers, that she owes the passage of the first appropriation for the building. As long as the white walls of this great building shall rise towards heaven and glisten in the sun light, so long will it stand a monument of the service he rendered to our people and so long will he be held in grateful remembrance among them. He needs no other monument. This too should serve to remind public men that the surest way to the popular heart and to an abiding remembrance is by services rendered to the people. Self seekers may tempt all the arts of the demagogue, but sooner or later their popularity will fade, and all thought or memory of them will perish from the hearts and the lips of men.

The Primary Election.

Let all good Democrats remember that on November 5th a primary election will be held in Wake county to instruct the Democratic members elect from Wake county for whom to vote in caucus for United States Senator. The choice is practically between party organization and Independentism, between a man who has always abided the will of the party and always will, and a man who has not only defied the will of the party in the past but who even now, though repeatedly called upon, will not say that he will stand or fall by its choice. Such conduct in the past and such silence now, justifies the opininion that an individual so acting is an independent candida e for United States Senator. If such is not the position of the distinguished gentleman referred to, let him announce to his fellow citizens of Wake that he will abide the will of the party. Unless, and until, he does, the choice of the Democratic party of Wake county is practically narrowed down to the question whether they will support the Democratic candidate for the United States Senate or the independent candidate for that high position.

We do not believe, we are very sure, that on that issue the fire-tried grand old Democratic party of Wake county, often defeated but never subdued, sometimes victorious but never divided, will not and can not hesitate. Victory can only be retained, as it has been achieved, by party organization.

Schenck on Poker.

We have recently been shown a copy of this work. Its author was, at the time of its publication, the representative of the United States at the Court of St. James. Up to the time of his appointment as our minister to Great Britain his chief claim to fame, however, had been as the Hero of Vienna, a village over in Fairfax county, where, during the late unpleasantness, the then General Schenck conceived the happy thought of capturing a rebel masked battery with an engine and a train of cars. Having run his train and troops within point-blank range—according to the legend—he stood the locomotive on its head and tried to fire off the smoke-stack. But the unmannerly "opposition," being of short patience, wearied at the valuable time wasted in the failure of this striking strategic maneuver, and began to pop away with round and grape shot, and canister and shrapnel, and velocipedes and encyclopedias, and other and divers munitions and machinations of horrid war. Whereat Robert C. Schenck—so goes the story—grew so wroth that he seized a car cushion, and for the space of two seconds held it before his valiant breast in the attitude of Horatius at the Bridge, and then, the prudent general, subduing the intrepid soldier within him, used it, in tactical parlance, to "cover his rear," while he executed a masterly retreat by left flank, right about face—en echelon—by platoon, on all fours, into the bushes. (See Upton's Manual.) To those familiar with the careful narrative and polished diction of the judicious Bancroft quotation marks will not be needed to indicate that the above account is from the 213th volume of his invaluable history. But now, in these piping times of peace, the pen is, indeed, become mightier than the sword, and when the aborigines of Fairfax shall no longer point the patriotic tourist to the scene of Schenck's retreat, "Schenck's Manual of Draw Poker," read by countless thousands of the ingenuous youth of all lands and tongues, will pass to posterity along with Schenck's Mandrake Pills, a thing of beauty and a joy forever.

Judging from the quiet game of bluff the friends of a certain candidate are indulging in, it is not improbable that Schenck's little book has been their vade mecum. It would be well for them to recall the above incident in the life of the author and recognize, in the near future, the certainty of their copying his tactics in getting out of a scrape.

Well-Toned Systems.

Systems toned and renovated with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are most effectually defended from disease. That supreme invigorant soon overcomes that distressing feebleness consequent upon ailments which impoverish the blood and relax the muscles. Vigor, appetite, sleep return to the wasted frame, and every physical faculty gains greater activity through its benign influence. Nor is this all, for the Bitters have a most genial and cheering effect upon the mind of the despondent invalid, which is the natural effect of the increased bodily vitality which they produce. Nervous symptoms disappear in consequence of the use of this medicine, and the evil consequences sure to result from a premature decay of the physical energies are averted. Dyspepsia, liver complaints, rheumatic ailments, urinary and uterine irregularities, malarial diseases, and many other disordered conditions of the system, are remedied by the Bitters!

BEAUTY:

OR THE

Secret of a Fair Face

AN ITEM OF INTREST TO EVERY LADY WHO DESIRES TO BE MORE BEAUTIFUL THAN SHE NOW IS.

Unfortunately not one woman in a hundred, subjected to the whims of an American climate possesses that basis and starting point of real b auty—a pure and clear complexion.

What nature has thus denied, art must be called upon to furnish.

It can be done; it is done daily. Prof. W. E. Hagan placed beauty within the reach of every unblessed daughter of Eve when Le discovered that surprising article known in fashionable circles as the true secret of beauty, and called

MAGNOLIA BALM

The MAGNOLIA BALM is a sure device for creating a pure and blooming complexion.

It conceals all natural blemishes in the most surprising and effecti e manner.

It removes all roughness eruptions, redness blotches, freckles, and tan with magical power.

It drives away all evidences of fatigue and excitement.

It makes the plainest face beautiful.

It gives the complexion a dazzling purity and makes the neck, face, and arms appear graceful, rotund, and plump.

It makes a matron of 35 or 40 look not more than 20 years old, and changes the rustic maiden into a cultivated city belle.

The Magnolia Balm removes all blemishes and conceals every drawb ck to beauty; and while it is as harmless as water, it is so lifelike in its effects that the closest observer cannot detect its use.

Ladies who want to make themselves attractive can make an absolute certainty of it by using HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM, and we know of no other way. It is the cheapest preparation in the world, all things considered, and may be had at any drug store.

A CERTAIN AND SPEEDY

CURE FOR SCROFULA.

FACTS ARE STUBBORN THINGS!

A BRIEF HISTORY:

The following is from the Raleigh News, and was a voluntary insertion and not an advertisement:

"Years ago an old Indian left a receipt for curing Scrofula with Mrs Person's father. Mrs. Person lives in Franklinton, or in that section. A child was born to Mrs. Person, and it had the Scrofula. The doctors gave it up to die. She thought of that receipt, that was now old and musty, and hid away in an upstairs drawer. She concluded if the child was bound to die, it wouldn't hurt to follow that receipt. She went out and gathered the herb, got the whiskey, and did as directed to the child. Her child now lives well and hearty. More than this: Only a few months since a South Carolinian, whose name has slipped us, was suffering with some scrofulous affection on the heel He had been to the Hot Springs in Arkansas, and from there he went to Kittrell Springs. Not ing did him any good. At Kittrell's they told him of Mrs. Person's recipe, and Dr. —— wrote to Mrs. Person if she cured that South Carolinian her receipt was worth money. And the South Carolinian sent her word if she cured him he would give her five hundred dollars. She sent all directions what to do, and added if they cured him he could send her twenty-five dollars; she wouldn't ask five hundred. The South Carolinian went home, and shortly afterward sent Mrs. Person a check for twenty-five dollars, and wrote the most grateful letter he knew how. Bless those old Indians. We would like to have one for a near neighbor."

UNEQUALLED AS A BLOOD PURIFIER.

MRS. JOE PERSON:

The medicine I purchased of you last winter proved of lasting benefit to my son, who was troubled with twenty-five running sores, some of them quite large, and of a scrofulous nature. In less than three weeks after commencing the use of your remedy, he was perfectly restored, and is to-day quite sound and healthy. AS A TONIC AND BLOOD PURIFIER IT HAS NO EQUAL. Hoping that you may be spared for many years of usefulness, I remain, Very respectfully,
L. J. STOKES.

Louisburg, N. C., May 22, '78.

AS A TONIC AND ALTERATIVE

Being desirous of adding my testimonial to others, concerning the merits of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy for Scrofula, I take pleasure in saying that as a tonic and alterative I do not think it has an equal. I have fairly tested it, and after trying Vegetine, Sarsaparilla, Vinegar Bitters, and various other remedies, I have no hesitation in pronouncing it far superior to any TONIC I have ever used. When I commenced using Mrs Person's Remedy I was very weak, complection sallow, and now I am WELL,
Respectfully your friend,
MRS. T. L. BROWN.

THREE CHILDREN IN THREE WEEKS.

CASTALIA, N. C.

MRS. JOE PERSON:

Dear Madame—Your letter has been received, and on account of being absent from home for a week or two, have not had the opportunity to answer it. I certainly will take great pleasure in doing all that is within my power towards getting you patients for treatment of Scrofula. I hardly know how to express my gratitude to you for curing my three little children. They took medicine from my family physician for about two years, with scarcely any relief at all. I tried your remedy, and in less than three weeks they were all perfectly cured, and have never shown any sign of breaking out again. I feel very thankful to you. I can safely say that I believe your remedy to be a certain cure for Scrofula. If I can ever be of any service to you in any way, I want you to be sure and call on me. Yours truly,
WM. H. ARRINGTON.

"It will Cure if Fairly Tested."

It gives me much pleasure to be able to state that I have derived an effectual cure of Scrofula from the use of Mrs. Joe Person's remedy for that disease. I had suffered from Scrofula for more than three years, and had despaired of ever getting well. I was treated during that time by three very eminent physicians, without any good result. I then went to the National Surgical Institute, at Atlanta, Ga., and was treated there more than two months, with no better result than my family physicians met with. After I returned from the Institute I was persuaded to try Mrs. Person's remedy, and I had not used it more than a week before I discovered its curative and healing properties. My sores soon began to heal, and the color of my skin changed as fast as the sores healed. I had not thought of ever getting well again, but my hopes increased, my low spiritedness fled before the remedy, and I am now enjoying splendid health and am in good spirits. The remedy is mild as a purgative, and a strong tonic; it will heal the most stubborn sore in three weeks if taken regularly. It is my opinion that it should be taken some time after the sore is healed, to remove the cause of its effects. It should be taken regularly by all means, for I have sometimes neglected it, from the pressure of business, and in all cases found that the cure already made would commence to retrograde, and for this alone it should be taken regularly until an effectual cure is completed. Nothing should prevent regularity in the use of the remedy, and it should be taken at the proper time. I would recommend to all who are suffering from Scrofula to try it. It will surely cure you if you give it a fair test. I speak from experience, and not from hearsay. I am a grateful recipient of a cure from the use of it and I am under many and lasting obligations to Mrs. Person for the great relief I have obtained from its use. Sufferers, try it and be cured, is my advice.
I am, respectfully,
JAMES A. MORRIS.

KITTRELLS, N. C.

My receipt for the cure of Scrofula has been tried by me with the most unprecedented success for the last twelve years, and I have no hesitation in recommending it as a sovereign cure for that disease and as a general Tonic and Blood Purifier. It is everywhere giving perfect satisfaction, while my experience with it is too limited for me to specially recommend it for other diseases, I believe it will ultimately prove to be of benefit in all cases arising from impurity of the blood and probably for other diseases

A CASE OF CANCER.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Aug. 12, 1878.

MRS. JOE PERSON:

Dear Madam—I have been using your Remedy for Scrofula over five months as an experiment for cancer. The cancer is of long standing, the doctors have been treating it, more or less, for twelve years, it has taken off my upper lip and a good part of my nose. When I began to use your Remedy it was growing rapidly worse, but the medicine seemed to check it very soon, and it has not made much progress since, except about two months ago, the medicine gave out, and I was without several days. It then seemed to start anew, and grew worse very fast, until I had taken the medicine about a week, since then it has not changed much. I think if I could have had the medicine soon enough, it would have cured me.

For more than a year before using your medicine, I was troubled very much with a disease of the heart, an irregularity in its action. It would miss every third beat for hours, then at other times it would increase in its action, and run up to 200 beats per minute. Since using your medicine I am almost entirely relieved of this, rarely feel it, and then not enough to speak of it. I would recommend any one suffering with heart disease to try your medicine. As a Tonic and Alterative, I do not think it has any superior. I have been using all the most powerful Alteratives known to the medical profession for the last 12 years and I know of none superior to this. I think your medicine is destined to be a great blessing to the afflicted. Let every one that needs a Tonic or an Alterative give it a trial, and I do not think they will be disappointed.

Very truly and Respectfully,
JOHN BUIE, Box 141,
Fayetteville, N. C.

For my personal reliability, I refer, by permission to Rt. Rev. Thos. Atkinson, D. D., North Carolina; Geo. A. Foote, M. D., Warren, Co.; Hons. J. J. Davis and C. M. Cooke, Franklin Co.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——Glorious Indian Summer.

——There are 99 pupils at the Peace Institute.

——The negroes at Brassfields have raised a Jo. Turner flag.

——Vote for Joe Davis. Do not forget the primary election.

——Johnston Court begins next Monday, Judge Buxton presiding.

——By request, Judge Fowle will speak at Wilson on Tuesday next.

——The old frame shanty north of the postoffice was partly demolished yesterday.

——A drummers' license was yesterday issued to Buschmann & Jarboe, of Baltimore.

——The new furniture for the Government building is expected in about two weeks.

——A couple of Africans indulged in a fight yesterday, and one was put in the guard house.

——Weldon Fair next week. Go to it young man. The Roanoke section is famous for its pretty girls.

——A number of swine, of fine breeds, were sold by the Agricultural Society yesterday, finding ready purchasers.

——The punch and judy show, with its glaring signs and drum beats, made Wilmington street lively yesterday.

——A crazy colored woman, from Franklin county, was wandering about in the city yesterday, and was lodged in jail.

——The funeral of the late Mr. Fisher will be held at the Salisbury Street Baptist Church, at 3:30 this afternoon.

——Madame Rentz's female minstrels will soon be in the State, and may perform here, if the authorities permit.

——A monster catfish was shown yesterday at the Agricultural Museum, which had swallowed a half dozen pocket knives.

——A green bush is growing on the corner of the roof of the Citizens' National Bank. The seed was probably carried there by some bird.

——Dick Woods, a negro who was jailed a few days since, for refusing to pay a fine for selling whiskey without license, was yesterday released, on payment.

——Jo. Turner tired out the smallest of small audiences at the court house last evening, by his "damnable iterations" about the rings, etc. In his mind the word change has no place, but the same old set speech is trotted out every time.

——There seems to be continued trouble about the mails, as a Chapel Hill paper says that a letter mailed at Raleigh will get to Pekin, China, sooner than another letter, mailed at the same time, will get to Chapel Hill. This needs explanation. Where is the fault?

Prominent Divine Ill.

Rev. N. H. D. Wilson, D.D., one of the ablest ministers of the Methodist Conference in this State, lies dangerously ill at Greensboro. So serious is the attack that fears are entertained that he cannot survive it.

A New Store.

The supply of goods in the new store of J. R. Carmer, agent, is full and carefully selected. The stock of groceries is in all respects first class, and the prices reasonable. The establishment is attractive, the goods fresh and tempting, and both are recommended to housekeepers. See the advertisement.

Abstract of Taxes.

The State Auditor yesterday received the following abstract of listed taxables from J. J. Setliff, Register of Deeds of Surry county:

General taxes	$1,730.68
Special "	1,770.01
School "	2,936.49
County "	7,285.24.

Personals.

J. B. Hill, Esq., United States Marshal, and Hon. J. W. Albertson, U. S. Solicitor, returned from Elizabeth City last evening.

Col. John D. Cameron, of the Hillsboro Recorder, is in the city.

Judge George W. Brooks is registered at the Yarbrough.

Primary Election.

Let all good democrats remember that on November 5th a primary election will be held in Wake county to instruct the two democratic members from this county for whom to cast their ballots for U. S. Senator in the democratic caucus. It is the first time this system has been tried here, and the result of the experiment will be watched with great interest. Besides, a very important question, from present appearances, is practically at issue, to-wit—whether an office can be so high as to justify democrats in supporting an independent candidate for it. At any vote let there be a full vote.

Raleigh's New Acquisition.

Some months past the armless man came to this city and with him brought a couple of educated hogs, of whose wonderful intelligence much was said. He had been here but a brief time when he became "strapped," and going to that kind-hearted citizen, Phil Walker, told him of his troubles. He said that he desired to raise about $30, and that he would leave one of the educated hogs, whose value was at least $500, as security for prompt payment. The money was accordingly cheerfully advanced, and the man in need left lighthearted. Comfortable quarters were provided for the valuable animal. The days slipped by, but no news came from the former owner of the beast. His new possessor finally concluded that he had best turn the animal's talents to advantage, and reap a harvest by exhibiting him at the Fair. Accordingly he put his man Ben, who professed to know the ways of hogs particularly well, to work to develop the latent talents of the porker. Ben went to work diligently, and many times a day dropped corn in front of the animal, while trying to persuade him to pick up the proper letters of the alphabet, Mr. Walker having purchased a set of letter blocks for the purpose. But the efforts to induce piggy to show his learning all failed, and his perverseness saddened both his owner and trainer. They finally concluded that they would not exhibit their curiosity at the Fair. A few days ago a gentleman came down from Greensboro, and at once recoguized the hog as an acquaintance. From his statements the true inwardness of the affair leaked out. The hog had been taken as a pupil by the armless exhibitor, while at Greensboro, the owner agreeing to pay $25 for his tuition in the mysteries of the alphabet and figures. He was at once brought to Raleigh, and had only been a student some three days, when he was hypothecated. Walker will not indulge in any more prodigies.

Pulpit Personals.

Rev. F. L. Reid will preach to-day in Edenton street church at 11 a. m., and Rev. W. C. Norman at 7½ p. m.

In the absence of the Pastor, who is attending the meeting of Synod, at Goldsboro, the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church will be filled by the Rev. Mr. Wharey, both morning and evening.

Rev. W. S. Black will preach at the Person street Methodist this evening.

The pastor of the 2nd Presbyterian church being absent in attendance upon Synod there will be no services in that church to-day.

Rt. Rev. J. J. Keane, Bishop of Richmond, will visit this city on Tuesday next, where he will stay until the 2nd of November. He will preach at Briggs Hall during the morning services, on all Saints Day, at 9½ o'clock a. m., and will lecture in the City Hall on that night, November 1st, at 7½ p. m. The subject of his lecture will be announced in due time. All lovers of sacred eloquence must not fail to hear this learned divine. Polite ushers will be in attendance.

Indian Summer.

This is the most delicious season of the year, when the air, soft, yet bracing, seems to woo one to its fresh embraces. It is as though summer came back a little ere frost benumbed her, and the brightness of the skies, the soft haze that shades the horizon, all give nature her most beautiful aspect. The woods, too, are marvelously beautiful, aflame with vivid-hued leaves. A walk into the country proves most charming, and repays one, by the scenes of beauty it discloses, for the effort. Pedestrianizing for pleasure, is almost unknown here, but how much those miss who keep themselves always in city limits.

JONES' BAKING POWDER

FOR SALE BY ALL GROCERS.

We ask all cooks, housewives, and the general public to give our goods an impartial trial. This Powder is carefully prepared upon scientific principles—the result of long and careful experiments and tests in chemistry. In its proportions and compounding it is the perfection of science, and is recommended by the leading Chemists in the United States, who see certificates we have. It is perfectly pure and wholesome, and saves time, labor and money to every consumer. It stands unrivaled; we challenge the world to produce better pure and more wholesome goods.

REASONS WHY IT SHOULD BE USED:

A BARREL OF FLOUR MAKES ABOUT 40 POUNDS MORE BREAD
IT NEVER FAILS AND ALWAYS PLEASES THE CONSUMER.
IT IS THE PERFECTION OF SCIENCE IN COOKERY.
IT IS A COMFORT FOR EVERY HOME.
YOUR BREAD WILL NEVER BE SOUR.
YOUR FOOD WILL BE THE BEST.
YOUR BREAD WILL BE WHITER AND RICHER.
YOUR HEALTH WILL BE PRESERVED BY ITS PURITY.

WARRANTED TO KEEP IN ANY CLIMATE

We do most earnestly caution consumers of Baking Powder against using adulterate and cheap goods, as no good and pure Baking Powder can be sold for less than ours.

An analysis of the cheap clap-trap spurious adulterated goods called Baking Powders would startle the community of consumers beyond precedence, as most of it is not fit for use, and would not be allowed to be sold were the laws enforced; yet goods of this kind are manufactured and sold by dealers because offered cheap by unscrupulous manufacturers. We caution those who value health, and appreciate good, wholesome living to buy only Pure Baking Powder. Jones' Unrivaled is such. It is an established article throughout the West and South, and is recommended by the highest authority for Purity and Strength.

All first-class storekeepers have it because it is pure and can be relied upon, and by credit to their stock.

Merchants are authorized to warrant our goods where directions are followed

Our statements are correct and are backed by chemists of note and experience, and we hold ourselves ready to prove our assertions.

We are offering goods of undoubted purity, which are in their compounding, as we claim "UNRIVALED."
